Lunch break

14:00 – 15:30

Session IV: Presentation and discussion of pilot projects prepared by the NFPs and other OIC Organs

Within the framework of the OIC-VET, the start of the Programme would be given through initiating pilot projects in order to enhance awareness of the importance of vocational education and training and to optimise technical cooperation among the OIC Member Countries. During the First Meeting of the Monitoring and Advisory Committee (MAC) of the OIC-VET Programme all delegates were unanimous that the activities undertaken during the Pilot Application Phase should be tangible, quantifiable and visible.

The participants will be provided with the information on the prepared and ongoing pilot projects by SESRIC. NFPs and OIC Organs will be expected to propose a number of pilot projects to be implemented during the Pilot Phase. They may also consider presenting their best practices in vocational education and training with the purpose of establishing linkage with the OIC-VET Programme.
